SOUTH SUDAN CRISIS: Humanitarian Snapshot (as of 28 April 2014)

CENTRAL

AFRICAN

REPUBLIC

Undetermined

Abyei region

Displacement locations

Violence hotspots

boundary

293.200**

est.people sheltering in neighbouring countries

1,260,900

est.people internally displaced people provided peop

277,000 people assisted through

Number of people displaced to Abyei region

Est. number of IDPs sheltering in the state

Est. number of South Sudanese sheltering in other countries States affected by violence

2 in 10 internally displaced people are in not accessible areas

16% of people displaced are in open or rural settings, often in hard to access areas

FUNDING

$

$1.27bn required before June 2014

HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE

Aweil Aweil Northern Bahr

Humanitarian access was hampered throughout April by active hostilities, violence against aid workers or assets, restrictions on movements both by checkpoint incidents and cancellation of flights, and interference in implementing aid operations. Despite these challenges, aid has reached over 1.2 million people out of the estimated 3.2 million people to be targeted for assistance.

Creation date: 28 April 2014 Sources; OCHA, IOM, UNHCR, and partners Feedback; imusouth@un.org. ochasouthsudan@un.org www.unocha.org/south-sudan www.reliefweb.int

Access Rating

Accessible

Not accessible

Accessible with constraints

Western Bahr

el Ghazal

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. <sup>1</sup>Final boundary between the Republic of South Sudan and Republic of Sudan has not yet been determined. <sup>2</sup>Final status of the Abyei area is not yet determined. *The IDP figures are based on reports from partners on the ground. Majority of them have not been verified and the figures shown here are as of 23 April 2014. *The refugee figures are as of 23 April 2014.